United Nations Day Celebration

Sunday, October 28, 2018

The United Nations Association of Centre County and

Its Council of Organizations invite you to our UN Day Dinner

Ramada Inn & Conference Center, 1450 South Atherton, State College, PA

5:00 – 8:30 PM

Featured Speaker Dr. Hari M. Osofsky

“Litigating Climate Change: The Role of Courts Around the World in Shaping Our Future”

Our speaker is Hari Osofsky, dean of Penn State Law and the Penn State School of International Affairs and Distinguished Professor of Law, professor of international affairs, and professor of geography. Dean Osofsky is committed to collaboratively building legal and international affairs education for a changing society, and is leading initiatives in career development, mentoring, and technology, while building interdisciplinary partnerships across the university.

Dean Osofsky’s over 50 publications focus on improving governance and addressing injustice in energy and climate change regulation. Her scholarship includes books with Cambridge University Press on climate change litigation, textbooks on both energy and climate change law, and articles in leading law and geography journals. Prior to joining Penn State in 2017, Dean Osofsky was the Robins Kaplan

Professor of Law; the faculty director of the Energy Transition Lab; and the director of the Joint Degree Program in Law, Science, and Technology at the University of Minnesota Law School.

Entertainment will feature Eric Ian Farmer (see vocallygrown.com/music/)
